

NOTE: The derogatory term "half breed" was used in this period of history to describe someone of partial-Native American ancestry. It is not a term that is considered acceptable today.

Catharine is writing about the closing of the 1854 Washington territorial legislative

